Federal law requires that the University of California receive consent from a parent or guardian before a child under age 13 may use the online application for Transfer Admissions Guarantee (TAG) at the University of California. In order for us to accept and process your child's application, we must have the signed consent form on file. Please read the following and indicate your consent below. You may return this form by mail or fax to:

ATTN: Brian Alexander
University of California, Davis
One Shields Ave.
178 Mrak Hall
Davis, CA 95616
Fax: (530) 752-1280
(Send to the attention of Brian Alexander.)

Terms of Use/Privacy Policy

This site is owned by The Regents of the University of California and operated by the UC Office of the President. Site content is subject to change without notice.

University Information Practices

The University uses the information requested on the application form to process your child's TAG application. Response to most of the questions is mandatory. If your child does not supply all of the mandatory information, the processing of his or her application will be delayed and possibly even prevented. (Your child's application will not be delayed if he or she does not complete those items that are optional.)

The University requires the following information to process the application:

- Full legal name
- Applicant's entering level
- Date of birth
- Address, telephone number and e-mail address
- California residency information of applicant
- Citizenship information
- Campus and major choices
- Academic history, including high schools and colleges attended, courses taken, grades and
- standardized test scores

Other information, such as parents' occupations and family income, are required only if an applicant is applying for the Educational Opportunity Program or an application fee waiver.

The campus Admissions Offices and Financial Aid and Scholarship Offices maintain the information provided on the application. The information will be provided to the state and federal governments if required by law. You have the right, according to the law, to access this information; see www.universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions/undergrad\_adm/selecting/camp\_contacts.html for contact information for campus Admissions and Financial Aid and Scholarship offices.

Information collected is disclosed to school counselors.

The State of California Information Practices Act of 1977 requires the University to provide this information to applicants for admission who are asked to supply information about themselves. Maintenance of the information is authorized by University policy.

You have the right to review your child's personal information, have it deleted and refuse to allow further collection or use of the child's information. To do so, or if you have questions about this privacy policy, contact:
